

10 Questions an audience would ask you (Answer in Milestone 4)

- What are some of the salient features of this model?
- Out of several features, what are the most significant features causing employee attrition?
- Why job satisfaction plays an important role in employee attrition
- Could distance from home impact employee attrition?
- How important is monthly income to retain employee in the organization?
- Why human resource department is experiencing highest rate of employee attrition compared to other departments?
- In human resource department, why attrition is high for women compared to men working in the same department?
- Would this model work on employee dataset of any organization and provide the expected result?
- Does environmental satisfaction/factor have an impact to employee attrition?
- What steps HR department need to take to prevent employee attrition and retain employees in the organization?
- Mention some of the ethical considerations considered during the course of this project.